Strategy Elior Group sets up global headquarters at La Défense

As announced in September 2015 by Philippe Salle, Chairman and CEO of Elior Group, and in keeping with its 2016-2020 strategic plan, the Group's different activities, located in various sites in the Paris region, are to be grouped together in the Tour Égée tower building in the La Défense business district.

Bringing these activities under the same roof is an integral part of the eight projects in the Group's transformation plan, Tsubaki, aimed among other things at accelerating growth, optimizing costs and supporting operational excellence

This new environment will offer collaborative, innovative and ergonomic workplaces designed to foster team spirit and optimize efficiency within a convivial framework. Elior Group, whose aim is to be the caterer of choice driven by quality and innovative customer experience, also plans to set up an on-site showroom and a laboratory to test and develop its catering and services offers.

Elior Group will be installing 1,200 staff members over 17 floors of the Tour Égée in the La Défense business district, all employees of the Elior Group holding company and its three activities: Elior France, the contract catering brand (Business & Industry, Education and Healthcare), Areas (France and Northern Europe), the concession catering brand, and Elior Services.

The move is scheduled to take place between August 29 and September 19, 2016.

Furthermore, Elior France, in conjunction with up-market brand Arpège, will manage all the inter-company catering activities in the Tour Égée. The catering spaces and concepts will be accessible all day long to meet the demand of all employees occupying the 39 floors of the tower building. Elior has also set up a room service for VIPs attending meetings and to accommodate working lunches, as well as a catering service for the Tour Égée business center.
