Appointments Stephane Gertosio, Group Director of Internal Audits Jean-François Camarty, Group Director of Public Affairs

Elior Group announces the appointments of Stéphane Gertosio as Group Director of Internal Audits and Jean-François Camarty as Group Director of Public Affairs.

Stéphane Gertosio, 40, graduated from the ESC business and management school in Tours (France). He began his career in 1998 as an auditor at KPMG where he acquired 17 years experience in the profession, three of which were spent in China. Appointed Director of Internal Audits of the Elior Group, he reports directly to Philippe Salle, Group Chairman and CEO, and at the operational level, to Olivier Dubois, Group CFO.

Jean-François Camarty, 58, is a civil engineer and holds an MBA from the HEC business school in Paris. He began his career as an internal auditor at Procter & Gamble where he went on to become a financial forecast analyst. In 1987, he joined the Wagons Lits group where he created the position of Director of Management Control for the catering division.

When the company was merged with Accor in 1991, he was appointed Director of Finance and Development of the same division. In 1994, he became Director of Operations for the Stations & Shopping mall division before being appointed General Director of the Stations & City division in 1997. In 1998, he moved to Elior Group to take up the position of General Director of the city sites division and was subsequently appointed Deputy Managing Director of Elior concessions in 2008.

In his new position as Director of Public Affairs for the Elior Group, Jean-François Camarty reports directly to Frédéric Fougerat, Group Vice-President Communications.
